EMPHASIS

VOLUME 51, ISSUE 2 FEBRUARY 2012

YOUTH HAPPENINGS

As we kick off a new year, things are off to a good start! Our Wednesday nights are still popping. We have added a youth choir aspect to our program and that is going well. Please look forward to a song or two in the near future. Bryan's daughter, Tori, is playing an active role in this ministry.

Our Sunday morning class is also doing well. We are just finishing up the series based on the movie "To Save A Life." If you haven't had a chance to see this, it is available in our library and certainly worth viewing.

We are also working on some dates for our famous after church lunches. Stay tuned and warm up those appetites!

That's all for now. As always we appreciate all that our church family does to support the youth!

God Bless,
Bob

SENIOR SAINTS

The Senior Saints had a wonderful dinner meeting Thursday, January 19th, with 89 in attendance and 6 churches represented. A delicious meal was cooked by Al Bunch and the entertainment was brought to us by "Greater Joy," a trio from Orcutt Baptist Church in Hampton.

I would like to say thanks so very much to the entire committee for the surprise letter of appreciation (written by Jim Bonner and presented by Sue King) and beautiful roses presented to me. I appreciate you all more than you know!

Our next Sr. Saints dinner will be this month on February 16th. We will feature Eddie Arnold, singing and his wife, Linda Arnold, as the sound tech. Please have your reservations in by Sunday, February 12th. We look forward to having you join us!

Communication Is Critical

That's why we are developing a communication strategy for consistent timely communications. Our leaders understand that we are entrusted carriers of information. The new bulletin is a step towards this end—good communication. Our newsletter, new bulletin, Sunday morning Sunday school teachers huddle, Calvary Happenings, Town Hall meetings, small group meetings, monitors, and website are some of the vehicles we will utilize to spread the word. If you have not yet submitted your email address to the church office, please contact our church Secretary, Connie Powell.

INTERNAL MAIL

Calvary has two church "mailboxes." The first is used for our committee chairs and is located in the ministry office next to the church office. Each "box" is labeled with the committee name. If you are a committee chair, please make sure to check your box regularly.

The other mailbox is for those attending Calvary. It is located outside the fellowship hall in the main hallway. We ask that only cards/letters be placed in this mailbox for those individuals who attend Calvary on a regular basis. All other cards need to be mailed by the sender. Also, make sure to check the box periodically especially around your birthday. We don't want anyone to miss out on their special greetings.

I would like to thank my church family for the many expressions of love while I was in the hospital, rehabilitation, and at home.

I appreciated all the cards, visits, food, and especially your prayers.

Please keep me in your prayers as I will be having more surgery soon.

In Christian Love,

Russell Patterson
