Communication Is Critical: That’s why we are developing a communication strategy for consistent timely communications. Our leaders understand that we are entrusted carriers of information. The new bulletin is a step towards this end—good communication. Our newsletter, new bulletin, Sunday morning Sunday school teachers huddle, Calvary Happenings, Town Hall meetings, small group meetings, monitors, and website are some of the vehicles we will utilize to spread the word.

Housing the Homeless: Inasmuch Ministry at Calvary (Portsmouth Volunteers for the Homeless) – Mark your calendars now for Calvary’s first year ever hosting our homeless guests for an entire week! Our guests will arrive this evening and leave us very early on Sunday morning, February 5th. For any questions, please contact Regina Harrington or Lois Brisbin. There will be no regularly scheduled activities on Wednesday, February 1st, we are focusing on this important ministry.

Sunday School Consultation: There will be a Sunday School consultation for all of our Sunday school teachers today following worship in the Fellowship Hall. Please join us right after worship for a consultation meeting with Israel Galindo, PhD in Christian Education. He is assisting us in meeting our goals and objectives.

Welcome Back: Dr. Philip Parker will lead Bible studies, preach, and offer pastoral care while Dr. Brooks and Dr. Hostetler are in Panama. We hope you will enjoy reconnecting with Philip and Sherry.
